ALVIN K. HELLERSTEIN, U.S.D.J.:

In January 2011, I memo-endorsed a joint letter from the parties, lifting the stay on discovery in the 21 MC 101 Master Calendar to allow discovery on damages claimed by the WTCP Plaintiffs. The narrow damages issue that remains is whether the WTCP Plaintiffs' insurance recoveries compensated them fully for all potential tort recoveries from the Aviation Defendants. E.g., Order Denying Motion for Certification of Interlocutory Appeals under 28 U.S.C. § 1292(b), World Trade Center Props. LLC v. United Airlines, Inc., 08 Civ. 3719 (21 MC 101) (Doc. No. 1322) (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 26, 2010). This issue, I believe, entails limited expert discovery, and perhaps nothing more.

I learned at the status conference held June 1, 2011, that hardly any discovery, and no experts' discovery whatsoever, has taken place. This leisurely pace shall not continue.
